

International Development Projects with Case Method

2012/10/16

Definition of Development

- Continuous improvement of the quality of life
 - Both socially and economically
 - Based on international standards and best cases to settle on our own and taking advantage and effectiveness from that
 - By using natural resources efficiently
 - By using technologies or a conversion of thinking without any damage
 - To get happiness of every person including in the next generation
 - Not only technical advancement, but also peoples personal development
 - Without any compromise for any stakeholders

Definition of Development (II)

- Process of change
 - For the betterment of all
 - Where things get better by artificial or intentional process
- To satisfy needs of people in an area
 - By offering knowledge and technology matched with the capacity of the people
 - Especially living conditions, such as dwelling, wages, health care etc..
- Concept that a country or a person strives to achieve. Ultimate goal towards achieving progress in any sense